Closing speaker- Chris Prochut Talk2EndStigma- Start the Conversation -Police Suicide and Mental Illness-Topics Rarely Discussed in Law Enforcement
Police Officers routinely respond to members of the public who are in crisis. Written policies and laws dictate exactly how to care for suicidal individuals or those in a mental health crisis. What are the procedures for how to help Police Officers in crisis? Why is there a belief that Officers are immune to mental health issues? The Stigma of these topics silences Officers. Create an environment where it is OK for an Officer to ask for help - TALK 2 END STIGMA!
